Langstone Super Summer Jazz Weekend
Friday 3rd - Sunday 5th July 2009

It could be said that we are quietly pleased at the reception of our annual Jazz Weekend. On the other hand it could also be said that we are chuffed to bits with the high quality of the music and musicians that Denise and Tony Lawrence have assembled for us, year on year since 2001 – and the package they have brought together for next July will certainly mean that the Summer Jazz Weekend for 2009 is going to be every bit as exciting.

Those of you that are already Jazz aficionados will be familiar with every name in the programme – for those of you that are not so familiar with the genre, be assured we are bringing you some of the very best. Bound to be a great weekend.

THE DENISE LAWRENCE

BAND....have been entertaining jazz audiences throughout the Uk and abroad for some 25 years. Denise's position as one of our finest blues and gospel singers is not in dispute and her dry, understated, spontaneous, humour provides another dimension to her outstanding

Denise surrounds herself with excellent musicians in husband Tony Lawrence, her fine pianist and musical director, together with the cool drumming of Pete Littleproud and the lyrical string bass playing of Ken Rankine. as always Denise and Tony will be compering and hosting this great weekend of jazz - and they will never be far away from the action!

In over 50 years of performing, John Wurr has been a member of Keith Smith's Hefty Jazz as well as The Ken Colyer Band.

ROGER MARKS' ARMADA JAZZ

BAND enjoy a position at the forefront of the British traditional jazz scene. Roger is one of this country's most talented trombonists and he makes use of all his musician's considerable skills to produce a form of traditional jazz, free from constraint or taboo, which critics have generously acknowledged with some stunning reviews in the jazz press. Jazz Rag magazine declared recently that the band is 'destined for universal acceptance - hot on the heels of the Barber institution'. On Friday night the Washington Ballroom will ring to this great music.

THE TONY ORESHKO TRIO. With a huge repertoire spanning the music of Django Reinhardt, swing, to the classics, the guitar maestro, Tony Oreshko, makes his debut appearance at Langstone Cliff. Playing jazz music of incredible complexity and such great beauty, this acoustic guitar genius has to be seen to be believed. Along with rhythm guitar and bass, the trio were brought together by their passion for the 1930's 'Hot Club' sound. Enjoy their combined prodigious talents in a wonderful Saturday lunchtime session accompanied by the Langstone's famous 'country buffet'.

After an hour of splendid jazz from The Denise Lawrence Trio, Saturday night is in the capable hands of THE DART VALLEY STOMPERS. Returning to Langstone Cliff by public demand and led by reedman, Jeremy Huggett, this is an exciting band of handpicked musicians dedicated to playing quality, dynamic New Orleans and Traditional jazz. The band have shot to fame nationally since their formation in 2005. With both superb ensemble playing and accomplished soloists, the band excels in all departments and is a great choice for our Saturday night 'Jazz Band Ball'.
